This is the official annual notification regarding information published in accord with federal regulations related to the Higher Education Opportunity Act and other federal legislation. All of the federally mandated information is gathered into a single set of web pages on the IWU home page (http://www.indwes.edu/About/Student-Consumer-Information/).

The following outline introduces several of the specific items of information. A paper copy of any of the information items may be requested from the Office of Institutional Research (institutional.research@indwes.edu).

- Information regarding your rights under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act is located in the document "Privacy of Student Records" at http://www.indwes.edu/About/Student-Consumer-Information/General-Institution-Information/
    - In brief, you have the right to review your educational record and request amendment thereto. You have the right to provide written consent prior to the disclosure of elements of your educational record. The university may disclose without prior consent only "directory information" such as:
        - Name, address, email address, telephone number, dates of attendance, class, and religious affiliation,
        - Previous institution(s) attended, major field of study, awards, honors, and degree(s) conferred including dates,
        - Past and present participation in officially recognized sports and activities, physical factors (height and weight) of athletes, and date and place of birth,
        - Schedule of classes,
        - Photograph.
    - You have the right to request restriction of publication of any or all of your directory information. Procedures for making such requests are outlined in the "Privacy of Student Records" documents on the website.
- Information regarding the availability of financial aid is located at http://www.indwes.edu/About/Student-Consumer-Information/Student-Financial-Assistance/ The financial aid pages include:
    - information about possible sources of grant aid,
    - information regarding the availability of loans and related educational and consumer protection literature,
    - eligibility and procedures for aid application,
    - the IWU code of conduct that prohibits conflicts of interest in the administration of loans.
- The Annual Security Report is located at (http://www.indwes.edu/Safety/). The report includes:
    - policies and procedures regarding campus safety,
    - information regarding consequences for drug abuse,
    - rights and responsibilities of victims of crimes,
    - records of crimes committed at IWU instructional locations.
- The Fire Safety Report is located at (http://www.indwes.edu/Safety/). The fire safety report details the fire safety systems and fire incident histories of IWU residence halls.
- Voter registration forms are available at (http://www.indwes.edu/About/Student-Consumer-Information/Voter-Registration/).

If you have questions regarding any of the posted information or if you would like to request written copies of any of the information documents, please contact the Office of Institutional Research (institutional.research@indwes.edu).
