

RE-View Semester Media Agreement

Terms of Use

These Terms of Use govern the relationship between you, the owner of the media and RE-View. By signing this agreement and leaving your media in our care you agree to the terms and condition laid out in this agreement. If you do not agree to these Terms of Use, please do not leave your media in care of RE-View. These Terms of Use affect your rights and you should read them carefully. We reserve the right from time to time, with or without notice to you, to change these Terms of Use in our sole and absolute discretion.

Terms of Media Loan

By leaving your media in the care of RE-View and signing this document, you agree to the Terms of Media Loan spelled out here. RE-View reserves the right to refuse any or all of your media if the content is deemed "IWU inappropriate" (please visit the "reviewed movie list" under the "resource" bar on the IWU Wildcat page) or the condition of the media is too poor to accept. You signify that your media is authentic (not an illegal copy) and was purchased within the United States. You allow RE-View the right to rent your media to IWU students and faculty for a fee to them.

You have agreed to leave your media in the care of RE-View for an entire semester. You as the owner have the option to allow your media to remain in the care of RE-View through winter break and second semester. The last week of the semester and/or school RE-View will return your media through the University post office. Your media will be placed in their original cases, bundled together, and placed in the post office for you to pick up via the university post office system. Unless special circumstances arise, your media is to be left in the care of RE-View for the entire length of time.

Terms of Consignment

For each media you loan RE-View, you also have the opportunity to earn money. When another student or faculty rents a DVD movie of yours, you will be paid $0.35. RE-View will keep track of this information and at the end of the semester, you will receive a check for the rentals of your DVDs.

Terms of Insurance

As we realize, there is a risk with allowing other students to rent your media. We have an "insurance" plan for your media. Should your media be returned damaged RE-View will compensate you according to the value of the DVD on the first day it was brought to RE-View.

DVD movies are rented out on a one-day basis. Each day your DVD is checked-out you receive $0.35. If your movie does not return you will be reimbursed according to the value of the DVD to be paid at the end of semester after the media went missing.

T.V. shows are rented out on a one-day basis. T.V. shows are rented out one disc at a time.. If your movie does not get returned (even if it is only one disk) you are guaranteed a reimbursement on the DVD according to value, which will be paid at the end of the semester after the media went missing.

RE-View is not obligated to pay you money if your media did not get rented.

In the RE-View Semester Media " Member Consigned Media Agreement the media you decide to consign will be listed whether it is just for rent or for sale. The price that you have decided to sell your media for will also be included in this Agreement

Terms of Media Valuation.

RE-View staff will carefully and thoroughly exam each media before it is placed on RE-View's shelf. We will look for scratches, cracks, water damage, etc with the media disk. Staff will analyze the condition of the disk and categorize it in one of the following groups:

- Great-A great disk has no scratches and looks close to brand new, is brand new, or is a new release (within the last year). Great DVD movies have a value of $13 and Great DVD T.V. shows have different values depending on the size of the season and relevancy.
- Good-A good disk has minor scratches and has obviously been watched but still taken care of, or is a relatively new release (within the last 2-5 years). Good DVD movies have a value of $10 and Good DVD T.V. shows have different values depending on the size of the season and relevancy.
- Satisfactory-Satisfactory disks have scratches and obvious "wear and tear," or are older disks release within the last 5-15 years. Satisfactory DVD movies have a value of $5 and Satisfactory DVD T.V. shows have different values depending on the size of the season and relevancy.
- Bad-Disks that are bad have major scratches, or are movies released more than 15 years ago. Bad DVD movies have a value of $3 and bad DVD T.V.

shows have different values depending on the number of episodes within the season and the relevancy.

- Poor-A poor disk has serious scratches and cracks. These disks will not be accepted by RE-View. Poor DVD movies or T.V. Shows.

It will be at the discretion and best judgment of RE-View staff to categorize media. RE-View is not obligated to place media on the shelves regardless of the category. A disk categorized in great condition may still be refused if too many of the copies of the disk are on the self, if the media is irrelevant to IWU student desires or if the media does not follow IWU and RE-View movie policies or for any other reason deemed acceptable by RE-View. A new release may still be classified as poor if the quality is of the disk is poor.

Terms of Rental.

You may rent your own media anytime with zero charge. However, you must return the media as though you were a paying customer. If you do not return the media by the end of the next day, a daily charge of $.35 (plus sales tax) will be assessed to your member account, and eventually added to your IWU student account if not paid by the end of the semester. For example, if you checkout a DVD movie that is yours and you keep the movie for one day. However, if you keep the movie for more than one day a $.50 late fee will be added to your account. Charges will accumulate for up to a 20-day span. After this twenty-day span, you may keep the media and the charges will stop. This is to help protect RE-View as well as you the media owner.

Media is rented for HOME USE ONLY. Should you rent a movie and show it to a large group you may be held liable for copyright infringement.

For-Sale Consignment

As an owner you have the option to make your media available for-sale while also being available to rent. If you agree to the terms as described in the For-Sale Consignment Agreement , you will receive eighty-percent from the sale of your media at any price sold. Please indicate whether or not you would like to exercise this option by checking the appropriate line below.
