

Movie Review Application

The mission of the Movie Review Committee is to review movies that may have educational or redeeming/kingdom values present or that may spark intentional kingdom discussion with the parties viewing the movies. The purpose of the committee is not to consider films for general entertainment purposes. It is our intention to stay true to Indiana Wesleyan University's stance on inappropriate movies and yet provide some grace for those movies that do portray a redemptive or educational quality. To request the consideration of a movie please complete the following.

Name _____ EXT. _____ Box # _____

Hall and Room Number _____ Fresh. Soph. Jr. Sr.

Film Title _____

The Movie Review Application questions should be considered carefully and answered fully as these responses are part of the review process. Answers should be typed on a separate piece of paper. Please attach your responses to this form.

1. Please list three on-line resources that you used for your research.
2. Generate a brief synopsis from the resources listed above. What would you like the committee to know about this movie?
3. What content resulted in the film's R rating?
4. What is the perceived worldview presented in this movie? How does this align with a Christian worldview?
5. What is your definition of redemption?
6. What are the redeeming values found in this movie? How would IWU students benefit by viewing this movie?
7. Why have you requested that this film be considered? For what purpose/program will it be used?

I _____ have read and understand the movie/media policy of Indiana Wesleyan University (located in the student handbook). I also understand that the movie review committee exists to help with the critical viewing of movies that have potentially redeeming ideas/themes. I also understand that the movie review committee does not exist to provide approval for movies solely for entertainment purposes. Understanding the purpose behind the committee and the intentionality of IWU student development office in trying to provide a Christ-centered environment, I agree to adhere to the decision rendered by the movie review committee.
